Title:

Summer Teaching Internship-Summer 2015

Description:

Breakthrough offers one of the greatest opportunities in the country for you to assume leadership and to practice creativity, adaptability, and problem-solving. Breakthrough recruits college students from across the U.S, including the top twenty most competitive universities, historically Black Universities, and all the Ivy League Schools. The application process requires prospective teachers to submit essays, a sample teaching video, transcripts, and a recommendation. Applicants who progress to the final round are invited for an interview.

Breakthrough's highly rated teaching fellowship takes place every summer. With its "all-day, every day" nine week commitment, Breakthrough's trademark summer teaching fellowship is very intense. It is a lifestyle more than a job ... an unmatched opportunity to make a real impact on students and the world. Fellows teach two courses, plan field trips and special events, and give parent conferences. By the end of this experience, you will definitely know if teaching is the right path for you.

The Breakthrough summer teaching fellowship offers ...

An opportunity to teach rigorous academic courses in English, science, social studies, and electives with the support of an experienced instructional coach!

Training in lesson planning, classroom management, and student-centered teaching
A chance to work with a fun, cohesive, diverse faculty comprised of other amazing students
Leadership opportunities related to special events, field trips, and committees.

An experience that has been rated by "The Princeton Review" as one of the top ten college internships

Qualifications:

When recruiting aspiring teachers, Breakthrough Twin Cities looks for a diverse group of talented high school and college students who ...

Are currently juniors or seniors in high school or college undergraduates (the last summer of eligibility is the one following your college graduation, so college seniors are eligible to apply)

Have a demonstrated passion and talent for the subjects they study in school and a desire to share them with middle school students

Crave the opportunity to try out teaching as a career (though you are not required to be an education major)

Possess the maturity to engage in significant personal growth and self-reflection

Are dependable and completely committed to the program

Represent and respect all types of racial, ethnic, and economic backgrounds

Are motivated by a desire to impact the lives of our students for the better

Do not have a teaching license when applying to teach in the program
