

GEOGRAPHY GATHERING

November 2008

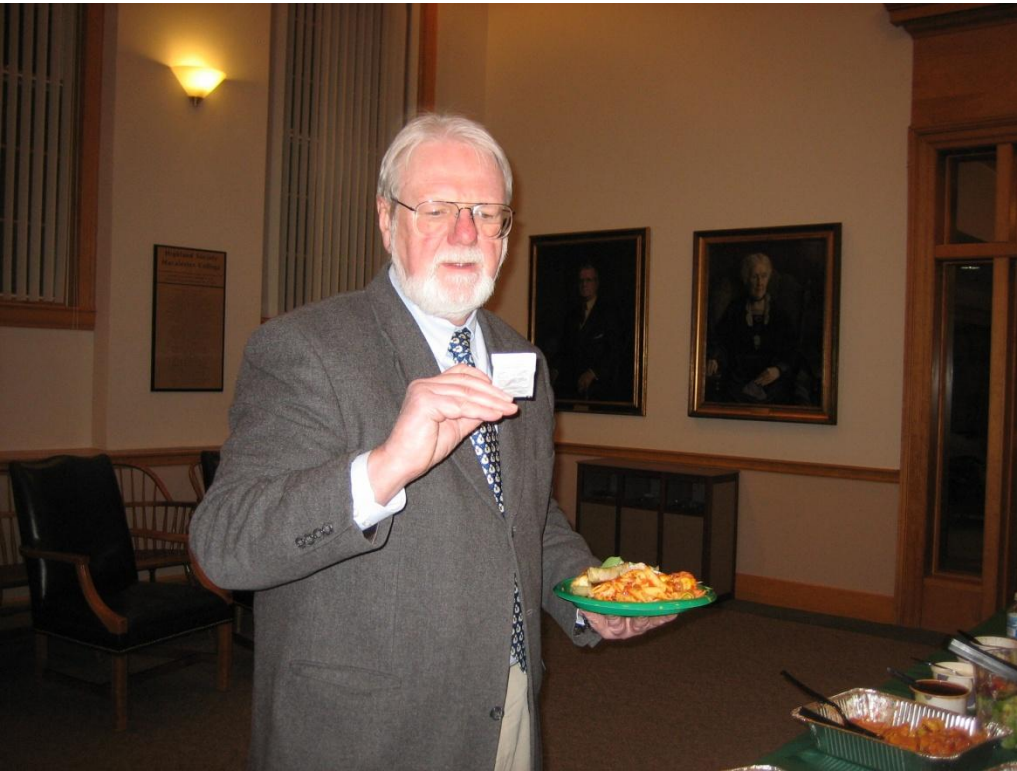

Food glorious food!

Me? No I didn't steal my tie from a Wizard of Oz munchkin!

MICHAEL WAUL RHODES SCHOLAR!

Michael's academic adviser, Geography Professor Laura Smith said, "It is difficult for me to imagine anyone more perfectly suited to be a Rhodes Scholar than Michael. He makes it appear effortless to balance a rigorous academic schedule with multiple leadership roles and service activities - and best of all, he has one of the most genuinely appealing personalities you'll ever encounter. He is quick with that brilliant smile, and I have so enjoyed working with and getting to know him over the last four years."
