

Life at Macalester

Geography - Class of 2012

On the way to senior-hood

Life in the field...

Scholarly life . . .

AAG
ASSOCIATION of
AMERICAN GEOGRAPHERS

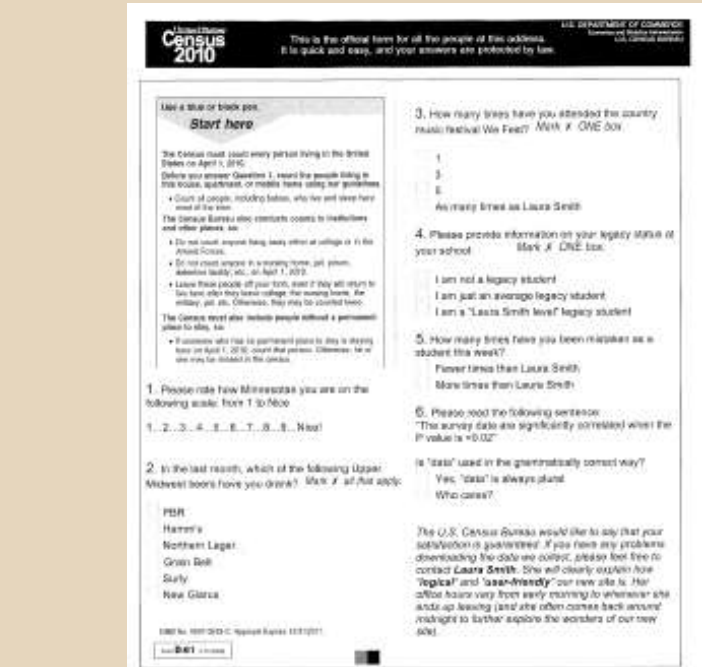

A photograph of three students posing in a large, ornate hall. On the left, a female student with long brown hair is wearing a black and white patterned dress and has her right arm raised. In the center, a male student with dark hair is wearing a black suit jacket, a white shirt, and a striped tie; he has his hands clasped above his head. On the right, another male student with dark hair is wearing a light blue button-down shirt, a striped tie, and khaki pants; he has his left arm raised. The background features a high ceiling with many small lights and large potted plants.

USCENSUSBUREAU

Foodies aka department gatherings

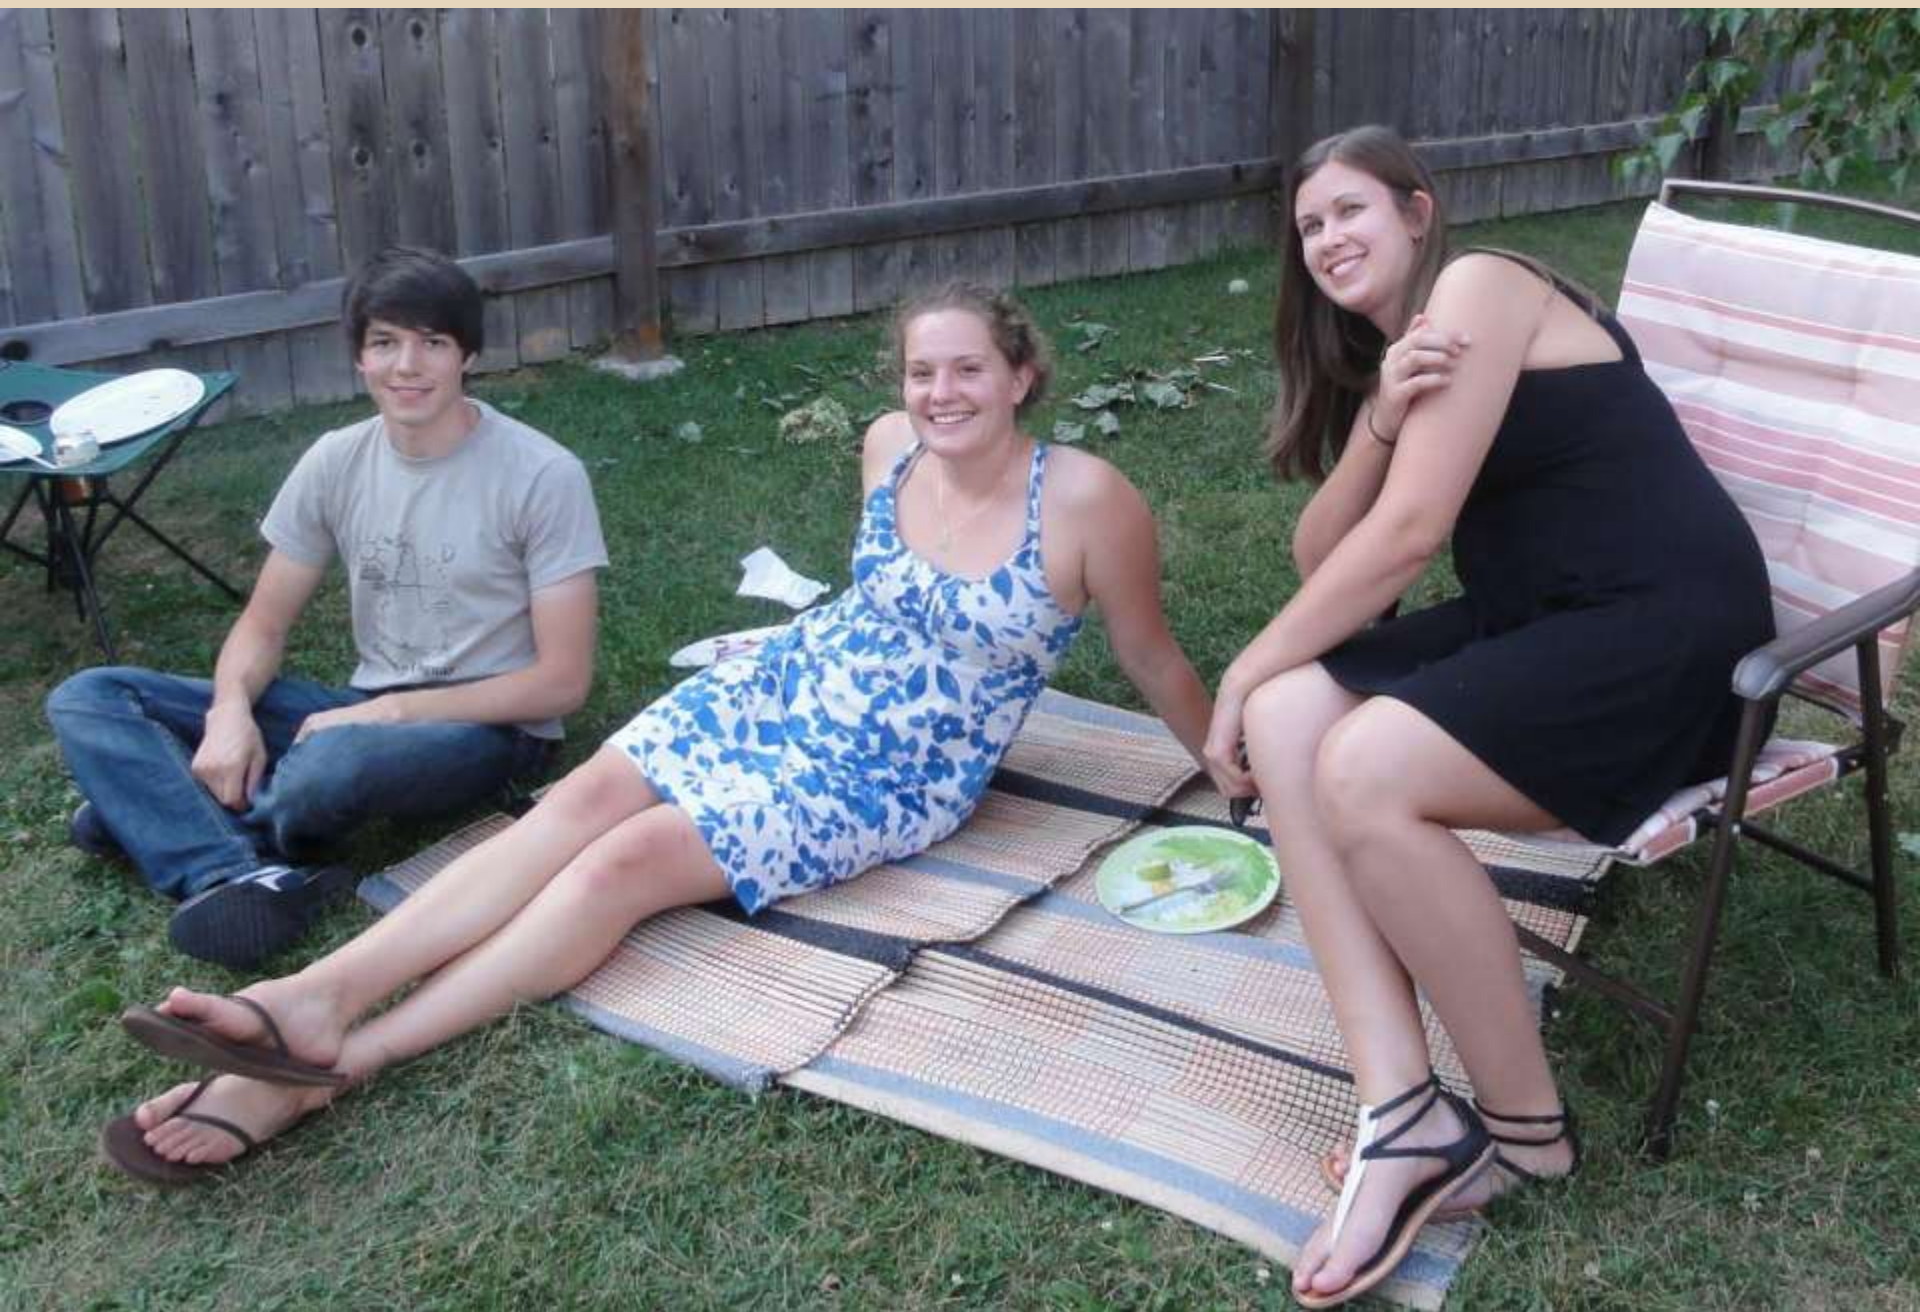

A life of leisure...

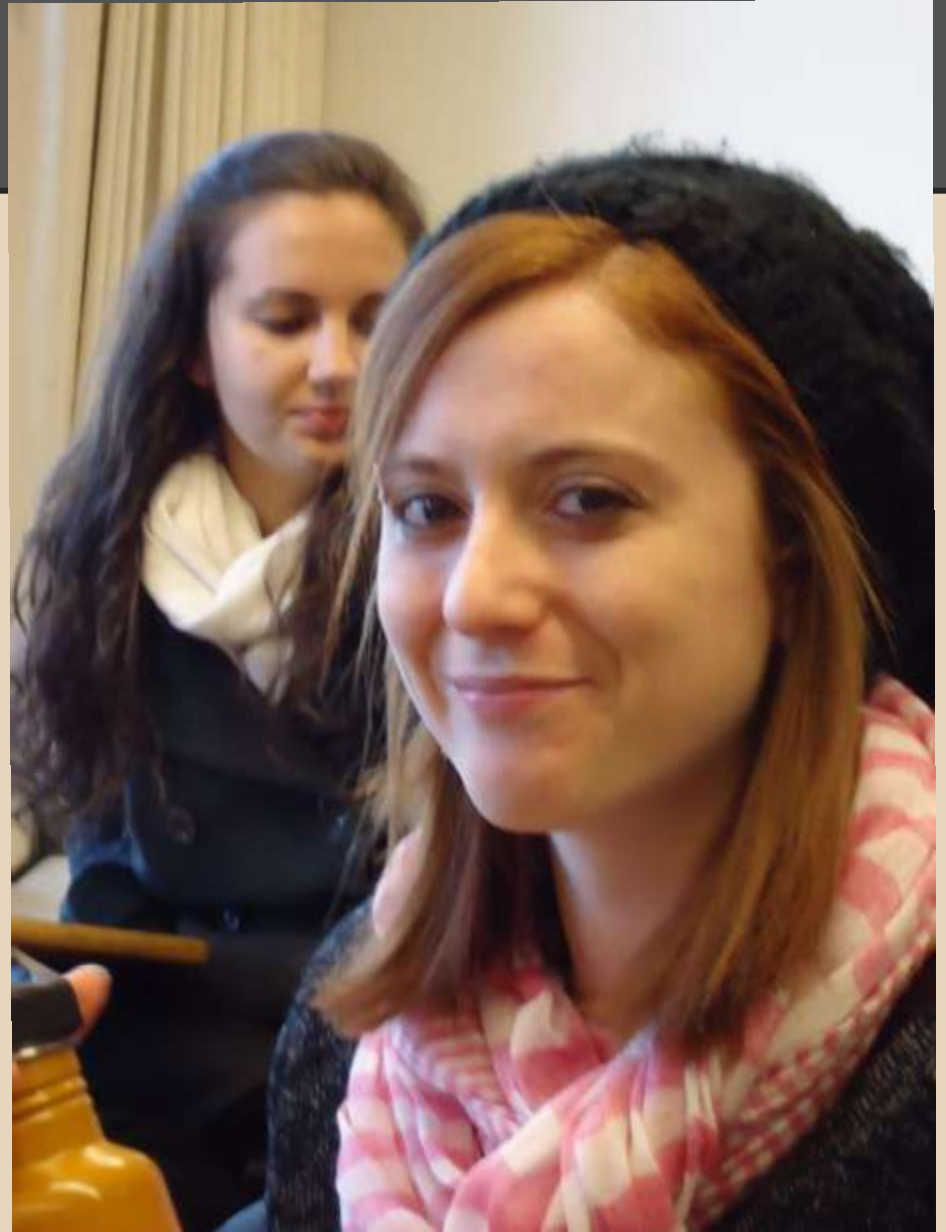

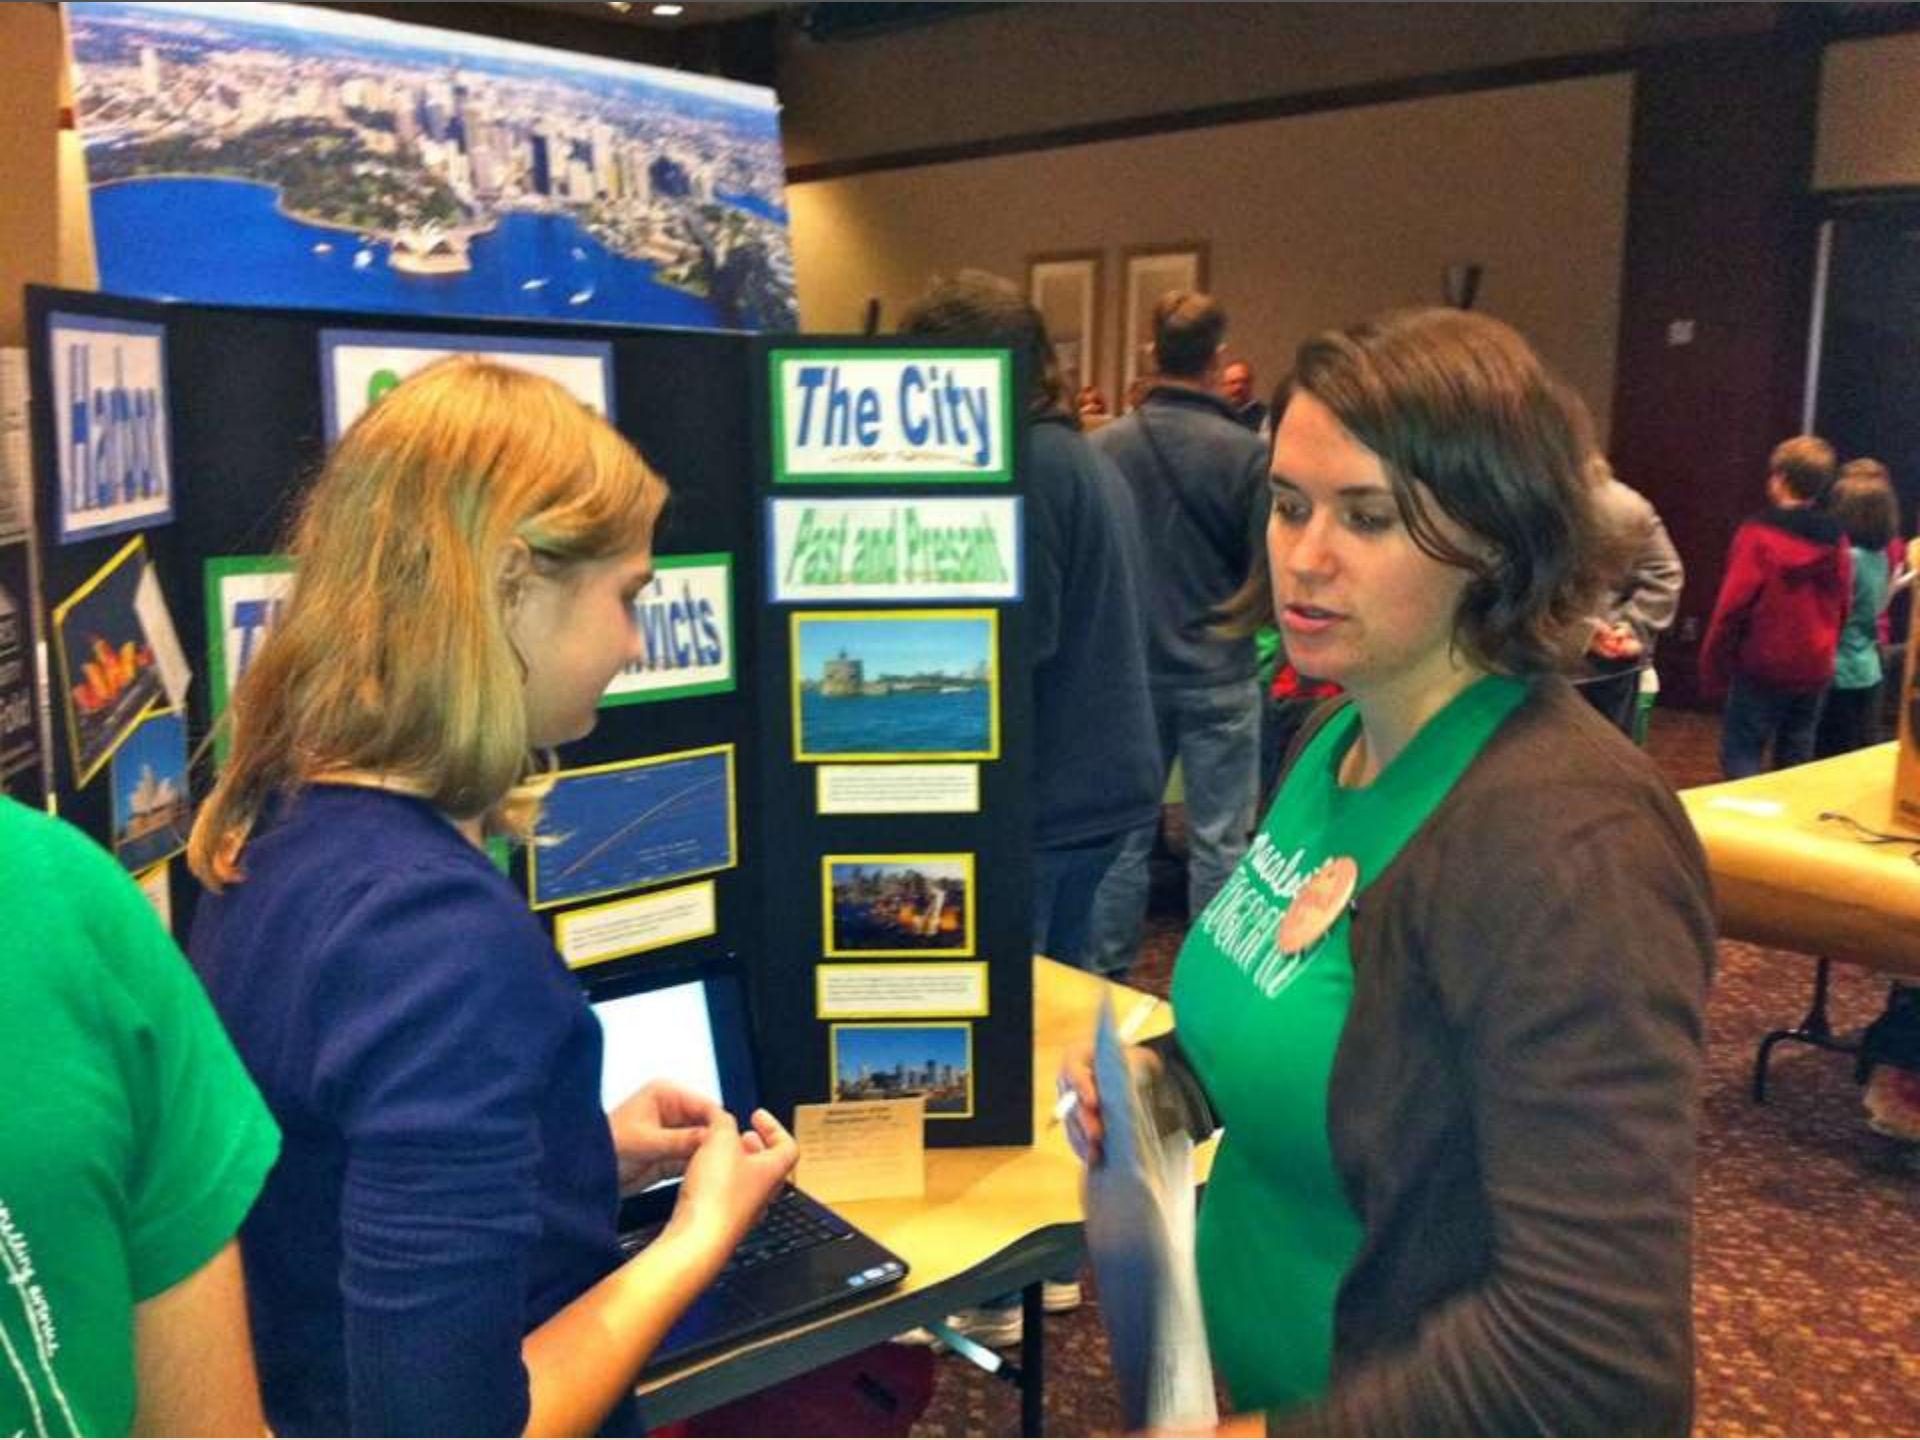

Life in GTU...

The City

Past and Present

City skyline across the water.

City skyline across the water.

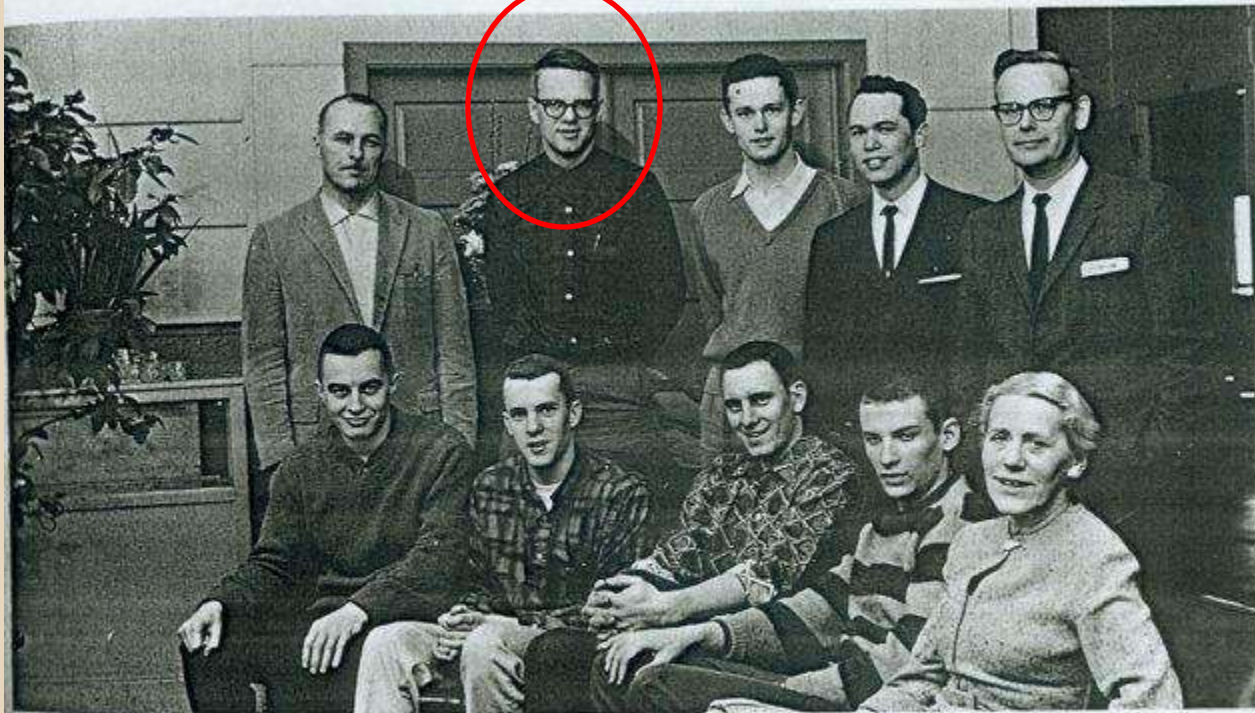

City skyline across the water.

Population growth over time.

Enterprising Geography Students Map Plans for Club

Geography Club, bottom row, (l-r): H. Johnson, adviser; A. Clutter, C. Naumann, K. Runkle, W. Brezina. Top row: E. Groenhoff, adviser; D. Hobart, D. Lanegran, S. Nelson.

Formed this year by students with an interest in the field, Geography Club met to hear lectures on pertinent topics. The group was advised by Profs. Johnson and Groenhoff.

Meetings were held to hear and discuss a human geographer's view of New Zealand, a historical view of the American West and a cultural view of African missions.

Celebrating our Founders!

MACALESTER

CONGRATULATIONS!

The possibilities are ENDLESS!