

The Mac Weekly Gazette

Don't worry, this definitely is not a weekly! It's periodic news about our Macalester 50th reunion.

Volume 1, Edition 2

September 2007

Share your biography and Mac memories

Check out our special 50th reunion website and dive in

By Rich Melin and Pat Lind Zankman

SO WHAT'S happened the past 50 years? It's time for YOUR part to help plan the reunion:

Write a brief biography and at least two 'remember when' items—some of those special memories you have of Dear Old Macalester!

If you need a little help, we already have put some on the college's special subwebsite for us: www.macalester.edu/reunion/2008/classof1958.

Take a look-see!

This also is where you can input your reunion note/bio and 'remember when' items. And don't forget 1954-1958 snapshots and current photo of yourself. No computer? No problem! Mail your submissions to the Alumni Office! All become part of the Class of 1958 subwebsite and later the Memory Book for each classmate attending the reunion.

If you have any questions, contact Rich Melin by phone (520-579-1350) or by email (richmelin@yahoo.com)

Committee members ramp up plans for milestone event

SOME of your classmates working on our 50th reunion program are, from left, Jerry Fisher, Jill Trescott Miel, Pat Lind Zankman, Jean Steinhauser Nathansielsz, Kathy Felland Sundall, Jerry Sundall, Mary Jane Budolfson James, and Gayle Adelsman. Photo by Karen Helberg Dahood

Great Scot!
See page 2

Great Scot!

Don't miss your Golden Scots Society induction ceremony at the chapel

By Gayle Adelsman

WHAT'S A GOLDEN SCOT? A Golden Scot is not a Mac sports team nor a cadre of major donors. All of us will become Golden Scots in 2008 because we are 50-year graduates of Macalester!

Several members of your Reunion Committee attended the Golden Scots Society Induction ceremony last June as guests of the Class of 2007. It is a simple but impressive event.

Next year we urge you to include this Friday morning ceremony in Weyerhaeuser Chapel as part of your own reunion journey.

There is something special in this gathering of classmates to receive the Golden Scot medallion and ribbon, especially so as spouses or children of those who are no longer with us step out in response to their loved one's name.

We honor ourselves, each other and our college experience in this brief ceremony.

We were all kids when we came to Mac but my how we have grown and changed! It is a moving and humbling experience to stand among so many classmates from our Macalester days

Mark your calendar and take your place at this Friday event, June 6, 2008! Be sure you plan to arrive early enough in the morning.

Schedule of Events

All as guests of Macalester

Friday, June 6, 2008

- Golden Scots Induction
- Golden Scots Society Luncheon
- Class Photo
- Tour and Seminars
- Class Social and Casual Dinner

Saturday, June 7, 2008

- Breakfast
- Tours and Seminars
- All-Class Family Picnic
- Tours and Seminars
- Alumni Awards Convocation
- Class Social, Dinner & Program

Sunday, June 8, 2008

- Worship Service
- Brunch

Nothing will be the same without YOU - make plans now to attend!

Other news

As we go to press, the Gift Committee is preparing a letter asking each of us to consider a special gift to Macalester in honor of this special time in our life. Watch for it in late September.

This Gazette is written and photographed by members of the Marketing team. It is edited and produced by Larry Teien (lteien@aol.com). Yes, the same guy who pulled all-nighters with his journalism classmates at Old Main to bring us the Mac Weekly.

Thanks to the whole Gazette staff.

By Ann Bangsund Grussing for the Macalester 50th Reunion Marketing Team. (apgruss@msn.com)

