Howes named RHPC head

by Charlotte Porter

Doty Hall representative Frank Howes has been appointed chairman of the Residence Hall Policy Council (RHPC).

The nomination was approved by community Council (CC) Thursday.

"What I really hope for... is to review the housing contract and determine its legal status," Howes said. "It's not known whether it's an enforceable contract or not."

To do this Howes hopes to hire a legal advisor, paid for by contributions from students, the dorms, or CC. He also plans to have more contact with the dorm council, "the most wasted resource of RHPC," according to Howes.

"Dorm councils give RHPC a chance to take the pulse of the student body and keep us more responsive," Howes said. "We also need more contact between the administration and RHPC--no one knows who has jurisdiction over what."

RHPC is made up of the dorm presidents, three administrators, and one male and one female representative from the dorms with less than 40 students.
