I. Update on preparations to circulate draft Statement of Student Learning

- RSVP tallies for the townhalls
 - Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 in the Harmon Room: 9
 - Wednesday at 12:00 in Olin Rice 250 (note location change!): 29
- SLC members are encouraged to come to at least one townhall, or both if schedules allow
 - It will be helpful for SLC members to hear directly from staff and faculty colleagues.
 - SLC members should be prepared to make note of suggestions and if they like, individual SLC members may also respond to questions or suggestions.
- The Moodle Groups forum and Google form are ready to collect feedback. Faculty and staff will be directed to these venues when the draft Statement of Student Learning is sent on Wednesday, September 21.

II. Continue revising Statement of Student Learning pre-draft

SLC discussed and resolved issues highlighted in the yellow-highlighted comment boxes. Please see the revised documents for a record of the specific edits.

Action Item: Kendrick will incorporate the edits from our meeting and send a revised document by end of day Tuesday, September 20. Each SLC member is asked to respond with comments by noon on Wednesday, September 21. Kendrick will make one last round of edits before submitting the draft, which will move out of “pre-draft” stage and into “draft” stage when it is shared with faculty and staff. It will also be sent to MCSG.

III. Prepare for next week’s (9.27) conversation with Provost Murray about HLC Pathways Project

Kendrick disseminated the Lumina Foundation Degree Qualifications Profile booklet.
