

Madam & Eve. The New South African Coat of Arms (2000)

MADAM & EVE
BY S. FRANCIS, H. DUGMORE & RICO

PRESENTING... MADAM & EVE'S EVEN NEWER SOUTH AFRICAN COAT OF ARMS!

THE NEW SOUTH AFRICAN COAT OF ARMS WAS UNVEILED LAST WEEK.

IT'S NICE... BUT WE DECIDED TO MAKE A FEW CHANGES.

The Hooded Vulture ... a keen predator, known for its ability to appear seemingly from nowhere, strike without warning and escape quickly.

Symbolises success and the ability to park your luxury motor vehicle anywhere you want.

Plastic Hangers and Bunches of Roses are symbolic of the great South African entrepreneurial spirit found at traffic lights everywhere.

Cricket Bats enfold the lower half of the emblem to represent honesty and integrity in South African sport.

Symbolises traditional family values ... especially when hiring for government jobs.

The Braai Fire symbolises friendship, and Sunday afternoons spent consuming animal fats and alcohol.

This indigenous and popular green plant symbolises nature and the desire for South Africans to inhale the high times ahead.

At the centre two figures symbolising fair negotiations and the desire of every South African to seek a living wage.

The Cell Phone, symbolic of the need for continuing communication throughout our great land, especially in restaurants, shopping malls, lifts and movie theatres.

PRONUNCIATION OF THE NEW MOTTO
Since there are eleven official languages, we have chosen a motto (in Danish) that nobody can pronounce, thereby promoting equality for all.
