EMPLOYMENT

Professor of Geography, Macalester, 1980--.

Visiting Professor, Carleton College, Northfield, MN, Summers, 2000 to present

Previous Positions

President, Minnesota Landmarks, September 1988-2002 (part-time).

I served as the Chief Executive Officer of the organization responsible for the management of Landmark Center. (Landmark Center is the Old Federal Courts Building in St. Paul, which has been converted into a multi-purpose cultural facility.)

Chair College Board Advanced Placement Human Geography Test Development Committee.

1996- 2003 and various positions at annual readings of exams 2001 and 2002.

Dean, Division of Social Sciences, 2000-2002 Macalester College (part-time)

Visiting Professor, Southwest State University, Summers, 1994-95.

Visiting Professor, Hamline University Department of Continuing & Graduate Education,

1987-. I offered geography courses in the Master of Arts of Teaching program.

Geographical Education Consultant to American Express Travel-Related Services Company, 1987-1991.

Program Associate, General Service Foundation, January, 1980-July, 1985 (part-time).

I served as the professional staff of this private foundation. My responsibilities were to review proposals and make recommendations to the Board, establish guidelines for grants and evaluate projects upon their completion. The foundation makes annual awards of one million dollars in the areas of education, peace, population and resources. I resigned when the home office relocated from St. Paul.

Executive Director, Off-Campus Properties, Macalester, 1982-1984 (part-time).

My responsibilities were to manage the 36 housing units owned by the College on the fringe of the campus and to prepare a redevelopment plan for three large parcels of land. I supervised the development of one model neighborhood and the renovation of 30 housing units. In addition, I served as community liaison for the College. I returned to full-time teaching when the development projects were completed.

Managing Director, Minnesota Landmarks, Inc., 1979-1982.

Minnesota Landmarks is a non-profit corporation charged with the responsibility of restoring, managing and programming the Old Federal Courts Building in St. Paul, now a multipurpose arts center. My responsibilities were to raise $8 million to renovate the building, to supervise the design and construction of the renovation phases, and to oversee cultural and community events. I assumed the unpaid Presidency of the Board when the fund drive and reconstruction were completed.

Assistant and Associate Professor, Macalester College, 1969-1980.

Visiting Professor, University of Minnesota, part-time, Winter and Spring Quarters, 1988-89.

Visiting Associate Professor, Pennsylvania State University, December, 1975-June, 1976.
Visiting Associate Professor, University of Minnesota, Spring Quarter, 1975, Fall Quarter, 1977,
Fall Quarter, 1978, Spring Quarter, 1979,
Visiting Assistant Professor, University of California, Berkeley, June-August, 1974.
