

2002 Minnesota State Geographers' Fair

Sponsored by the
Minnesota Alliance for Geographic Education

Hosted by
Science Museum of Minnesota

The 2002 Minnesota State Geographers' Fair was led with zeal and enthusiasm by first-time coordinator, Jane Conlin of Nativity School, St. Paul.

Lana Mahoney, Curriculum Team Member (World Languages & Social Studies) for St Paul Public Schools, shows Kelly Swanson, MAGE Steering Committee Member and St. Paul High School Teacher, the free resource materials given to Fair Teacher Participants.

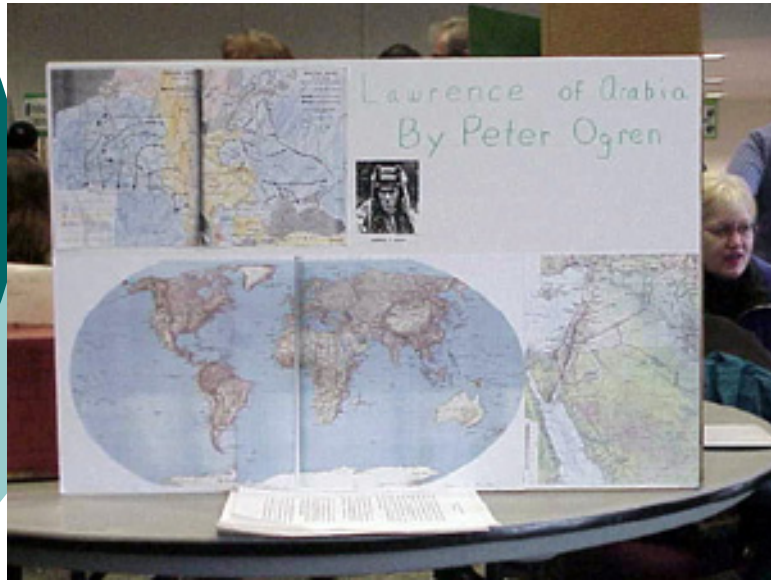

- Several teacher volunteers assists fair participants with "button making"

- Over 175 projects were displayed at this years' Fair -- way to go everyone!
