

SEVEN SPEAKERS, ACTIONS AND FILMS

to help you and yours understand and confront
GLOBAL WARMING and the ENERGY CRISIS

Voices from the Frontlines

Nigerian activist Omoyele Sowore speaks on human rights abuses and oil interests and our role in solving the energy and climate crises.
Tuesday, October 10, 7:00 pm

Too Hot Not to Handle

Don't know what a warming world looks like? Find out the impacts, and the solutions, around the world and throughout society.
Wednesday, October 11, 7:00 pm

Syriana

Academy Award winning political thriller which discusses the far reaching cultural and political effects of America's oil appetite.
Family Fest: With MacCINEMA
Saturday, October 14, 7:00 pm

Bigstone Coal Public Hearing

Action Time! Stand up for clean energy by opposing a new coal plant at a public hearing. Lets build a bright energy future.
Monday, October 16
6:00 pm Downtown St. Paul
Contact: Cesia at cesia.kearns@sierraclub.org

Kilowatt Ours

A family explores the coal industry that lights its homes, and then sets out to find alternatives that save $, energy, and CO2.
You can join in!
Tuesday, October 17, 7:00 pm

The End of Suburbia

We've built an American Dream on cheap oil. It's running out, and getting expensive: the transition will change our way of life.
Wednesday, October 18, 7:00 pm

Two Adventures, One Mission

Speakers Chad Kister and Will Steger on Global Warming at the Poles. Global warming: it's visible, its personal, its time to act.
Friday, October 20, 7:00 pm

•Please excuse the late-breaking schedule changes•

The Festival will be held at Macalester College, with events in the John B. Davis Lecture Hall.

•All events are free and open to absolutely everyone•

Questions? Write Ellie Rogers at erogers@macalester.edu

Sponsored by the Macalester Conservation and Renewable Energy Society (MacCARES) and supported Sierra Club Energy Film festivals, Global Exchange, Global Warming 101, The Arctic Refuge Defense Campaign, Macalester's Program Board, the Environmental Studies Department, MacBike, and MPIRG

THE FOSSIL FREE FUTURE FESTIVAL