

Minnesota Innovative Users Group
Steering Committee Meeting
Tuesday, May 2, 2006
CLIC Office

Present:

Eric Hinsdale (Gould Library, Carleton College), Chair
Deb Bergeron (CLIC – College Libraries in Consortium), Chair-Elect
Sarah Johnston (St. Olaf College Libraries), Treasurer
Amy Radermacher (Concordia University)
Jim Vogt (Saint Paul Public Library), Secretary

New Steering Committee Member

A welcome was extended to Amy Radermacher of Concordia University of Saint Paul. Amy works mainly in the areas of cataloging, electronic resources, and reference services. She has been at Concordia for three years. She will be taking Peggy Woodling's seat on the Steering Committee. Amy's term will expire at the end of 2007.

Treasurer's Report

The balance on March 20, 2006 was $1451.26. With the deposit of a number of membership dues, the balance on May 2, 2006 was $1851.26.

Membership

A number of Wisconsin library organizations will no longer be MN-IUG members: SWITCH, Colfax, and Superior.

New MN-IUG member organizations from Minnesota are: Lake Agassiz Regional, Northwest Regional, and Pioneerland Library System.

Sarah will notify Ron of this information, so that the website list of MN-IUG member organizations can be updated.

Jim will send an e-mail to the listserv welcoming the new member libraries.

Spring Conference

Steering Committee members each took responsibility for a number of tasks that need to be accomplished leading up to the Spring Conference.
