

To: Associated Colleges of the Twin Cities
From: Science Museum of MN/Computer Education Center
Subject: Computer Training- Special Discounted Pricing

The Science Museum of Minnesota Computer Education Center is pleased to provide ACTC members with Windows/PC training at the special discounted rate of $103 per class for all classes regularly priced at $139, $143 for classes regularly price at $159, and $161 for classes regularly priced at $179. No discounts apply to $50, $75, $199 and $229 classes. The Science Museum offers over 200 courses covering more than 70 topics-

- MS Office Products
- Databases
- Desktop Publishing and Digital Imaging
- Internet
- Web Development and Design
- Network Administration

Classes range from introductory (Absolutely Terrified of Computers) to accelerated (Fast Track) learning to classes for the IT Professional (HTML, MySQL, PHP and Windows 2003 Server). In addition, free two-hour seminars are available: How to Buy A Personal Computer, Internet Overview, Wireless Networking, and Family Genealogy.

The Science Museum specializes in instructor-led, hands-on classes for the Windows and Macintosh environments, offered in half-day sessions at two convenient locations: St. Paul and Edina. Course materials are included and free refresher classes are offered. In addition to regularly scheduled individual classes, customized group training is available. The Science Museum of Minnesota has a reputation for providing solid value based training and has operated this highly regarded program in computer instruction for business applications for over 24 years!

To register, call the Science Museum at 651.221.4722 or register via the web: <http://comped.smm.org> or fax to 651.221.5092. Please identify yourself as being a ACTC member in order to receive the reduced rate.

To arrange group/customized training or to get additional information, contact Karen Iverson at 651.780.5724.

Discounts are based on volume and reviewed on an annual basis.

We appreciate your business!