

Enantiomers can be distinguished only by a probe that is itself chiral (such as the receptors in your nose!)

e.g. carvone

R: spearmint

S: caraway

mirror plane