MACALESTER

WELCOME TO MACALESTER

Thank you for joining us for Mac Day! Whether you traveled here from across the world or across the street, we appreciate you taking the time and effort to be here. We hope your day on campus gives you a chance to meet our community and see what it might be like to become one of the 2,100 students who call this little space in the middle of the Twin Cities home.

Land Acknowledgement

Macalester is located in Saint Paul, Minnesota on the ancestral homeland of the Dakota people who were forcibly exiled from the land because of aggressive and persistent settler colonialism. We make this acknowledgment to honor the Dakota people, ancestors, and descendants, as well as the land itself.

SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Welcome and Academic Overview

8:30 - 9:25

Weyerhaeuser Memorial Chapel

A welcome from President Rivera followed by a professor panel moderated by Elyan Paz.

Suzanne Rivera
President
Macalester College

Macalester's 17th president, Dr. Suzanne Rivera, welcomes you to campus.

Elyan Paz
Assistant Vice President and Dean of Admissions

Elyan will kick off Mac Day and serve as moderator in our Welcome Session.

Karín Aguilar-San Juan (sanjuan@macalester.edu)
Professor and Chair of American Studies

Professor Aguilar-San Juan encourages her students to see how the presentation and organization of historical narratives can reshape our perspectives. Her classes cover a variety of topics including prison studies, US imperialism, and the life of martial artist Bruce Lee. This fall she will teach a First-Year Course called "What's After White Empire—and Is It Already Here?"

Summer Hills-Bonczyk (shillsbo@macalester.edu)
Assistant Professor of Art

Professor Hills-Bonczyk is a Macalester alumna from the Class of 2005 who teaches ceramics courses. Her teaching emphasizes the benefits of experimentation and routine, and she advises students who use art to raise funds for hunger relief through the Empty Bowls Project.

Joslenne Peña (jpena@macalester.edu)
Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Statistics, and Computer Science

Joslenne's research focuses on understanding how we teach and engage underrepresented groups in computer science education through a variety of design opportunities in the classroom. She studies human-computer interaction, and is keen on understanding how to solve design or computing problems, regardless of domain, through the lens of the user.

Roopali Phadke (phadke@macalester.edu)
Professor of Environmental Studies

Professor Phadke's teaching and research focus on energy and climate policy, citizen science, community-based research methodologies, and sustainable development initiatives. Her courses have significant civic engagement components, with a goal of helping her students build portfolios of professional-quality work, such as scientific posters, websites, grant proposals, and published op-eds.
