MACALESTER

WELCOME TO MACALESTER

Thank you for joining us for Mac Day! Whether you traveled here from across the world or across the street, we appreciate you taking the time and effort to be here. We hope your day on campus gives you a chance to meet our community and see what it might be like to become one of the 2,100 students who call this little space in the middle of the Twin Cities home.

Land Acknowledgement

Macalester College is located on the homeland of the Dakota people – Mni Sota Makoce [Mini SOta Ma-KOH-chay], which translates to Land Where the Waters Reflect the Clouds. Although they were forcibly exiled by aggressive and persistent settler colonialism, the Dakota people still flourish despite this painful history. We make this acknowledgment to honor the Dakota people, ancestors, and descendants, as well as the land itself. Macalester engages in ongoing work toward repair and partnership with the Dakota people and the land, as well as to support Indigenous members of our campus community.

SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Welcome and Academic Overview

8:30 - 9:25

Weyerhaeuser Memorial Chapel

A welcome from President Rivera and Jeff Allen followed by a professor panel.

Suzanne Rivera
President
Macalester College

Macalester's 17th president, Dr. Suzanne Rivera, will moderate the faculty panel.

Jeff Allen
Vice President Admissions and Financial Aid

Jeff will kick off Mac Day and welcome you to campus.

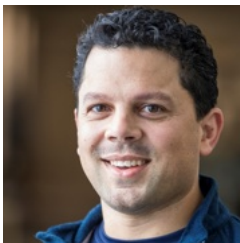

Duchess Harris (harris@macalester.edu)
Professor of American Studies

Professor Harris is an interdisciplinary scholar of contemporary African American history and political theory. She is a prolific author of both scholarly work and also educational books for students in grades 4-12. This spring she is co-teaching a course examining the intersections between the US Civil Rights Movement and the Troubles in Northern Ireland, which includes a trip to Ireland.

Mark Mandarano (mmandara@macalester.edu)
Professor and Chair of Music, and Director of Instrumental Activities

Professor Mandarano enjoys an international career as a conductor, with past performances at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center and other renowned venues in the U.S. and abroad. He encourages students to develop a common vocabulary to talk and think about music together while honing their own musical skills.

Shilad Sen (ssen@macalester.edu)
Professor and Chair of Computer Science

Professor Sen's courses range from introducing students to object-oriented design, to a senior capstone course working with massive datasets from member-maintained websites such as Wikipedia and flickr. He also enjoys playing the saxophone and squash.

Cari Gillen-O'Neel (cgilleno@macalester.edu)
Associate Professor and Chair of Psychology

Professor Gillen-O'Neel's research focuses on social identities, particularly the process for how and when children form and understand their social identities. She enjoys helping students plan and implement their own research, and in the Fall of 2026 she will be teaching Intro to Psychology.
