

The slide features abstract green geometric shapes. On the left, a solid green triangle points downwards. On the right, a complex arrangement of overlapping translucent green triangles and polygons creates a layered, architectural effect. A thin, light gray line extends from the bottom left towards the right, passing through the green shapes.

Defining Inclusivity

Arthur Mitchell

Macalester College

CATJ28 Saturday May 30, 2020

Defining the terms:

Representation	(External) Inclusivity	(Internal) Inclusivity

Defining the terms:

Representation	(External) Inclusivity	(Internal) Inclusivity
Efforts to make the demography of the institution (teachers, staff, administration) more accurately match that of the student body.

Defining the terms:

Representation	(External) Inclusivity	(Internal) Inclusivity
Efforts to make the demography of the institution (teachers, staff, administration) more accurately match that of the student body.	Efforts to become more aware of the experiences of other - especially non-privileged - identities and to adjust ones curriculum or alter one's consciousness in recognition of these experiences.

Defining the terms:

Representation	(External) Inclusivity	(Internal) Inclusivity
Efforts to make the demography of the institution (teachers, staff, administration) more accurately match that of the student body.	Efforts to become more aware of the experiences of other - especially non-privileged - identities and to adjust ones curriculum or alter one's consciousness in recognition of these experiences.	Efforts to become more aware of one's own social identities, where one stands within the hierarchy, and how this positionality affects one's relationship to the content one teaches and the way one teaches it.