

Reflective Activity

Identity Sculpture

Activity Description

Have students make a sculpture that represents their identity with pipe cleaners.

Preparation, Handouts, Resources

Give verbal instructions and then 15 minutes for students to create them.

Learning Goals

Discuss the interconnectedness of identity; talk about how identity affects students in their roles and discuss the importance of honoring the identities that people share.

Recommendations

It is interactive and allows students to think about identity in a different way.

Tool Contributor

Joan Maze, Director of Campus Activities and Operations