

Classics Department Honors Proposal Form
Due in the Department Office by the First Friday in April

Name:

Date:

Working Title:

Faculty with whom you consulted to prepare this proposal:

1. What is the nature of your Honors Project? What question(s) do you intend to pursue?

2. What experiences and ideas have led you to this question?

3. What is your proposed plan of research, development and work on your thesis? Include resources you will utilize, and how you will allot time to the project.

4. What languages will be required for you to engage successfully in thorough, scholarly research and debate on this topic?

5. What courses and academic experiences have prepared you to pursue this project?

6. How does this project fit into your major in classics? Into your college career?
Into your plans for the future?

7. Whom do you propose to have as your Honors Adviser?