Life at Macalester
Geography - Class of 2012
On the way to senior-hood
Life in the field...
Scholarly life . . .
Life in the lab...
Foodies aka department gatherings
A life of leisure...
Life in GTU...
Enterprising Geography Students Map Plans for Club

Formed this year by students with an interest in the field, Geography Club met to hear lectures on pertinent topics. The group was advised by Profs. Johnson and Groenhoff.

Meetings were held to hear and discuss a human geographer's view of New Zealand, a historical view of the American West and a cultural view of African missions.
Celebrating our Founders!
CONGRATULATIONS!

The possibilities are ENDLESS!