

Museum Intern - Summer 2016

Position Information

Employer:

Minnehaha County

Division:

N/A

Title:

Museum Intern - Summer 2016

Description:

The Siouxland Heritage Museums is a joint county-city museum system which includes the Old Courthouse Museum and the Pettigrew Museum. The Old Courthouse Museum is the former Minnehaha County Courthouse which opened in 1890 at Sixth Street and Main Avenue. The 1889 Pettigrew Home and its later museum gallery additions are located on the corner of Eighth Street and Duluth Avenue. Both buildings underwent restoration in the late 1980's and further improvements continue whenever funding permits. The organization is committed to the ideal that museums are learning institutions which collect, preserve, interpret and exhibit collections of regional significance.

Examples of Duties Include

The Siouxland Heritage Museums has established an internship program to provide college students or recent graduates with practical experience working in the museum field. This internship is an introduction to museum work and offers the opportunity to work with and learn from museum professionals in collections management, exhibits management, and educational programming.
