

The 2016-17

Honors Lecture Series

SIX WOMEN. SIX TOPICS.

SIX PERSPECTIVES.

KARIN VÉLEZ
MACALESTER COLLEGE

“Well-Behaved Women (and Animals) Seldom Make History: Questioning Behavior Standards in the History of Religion”

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
7:00 pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

Co-sponsored by the Religious Studies Program

MARY CLEAVE
NASA

“Being a Woman at NASA in the 1980s and 90s”

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25
7:00 pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

Co-sponsored by the Astronaut Scholarship Foundation

RACHEL CAMPOS-DUFFY
TV PERSONALITY

“Feminism: Why Gloria Steinem and Sheryl Sandberg Prove Conservatives are the Real Feminists”

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24
7:00 pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

Co-sponsored by Young America's Foundation

LINDA HOLMES
NATIONAL PUBLIC RADIO

“And Me Without My Pink Cocktail: Images of Women in Television”

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21
7:00 pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

MARJORIETH SANMARTIN
GREY WORLDWIDE

“From Strife to Strength: Seven Laws for Women Surviving in a Male-Dominated Business World of Rapid Global Change”

TUESDAY, MARCH 21
7:00 pm, Ted Mann Concert Hall

ELIZABETH KOLBERT
THE NEW YORKER

“The Sixth Extinction”

THURSDAY, APRIL 13
7:30 pm, Carlson Family Stage at Northrop Memorial Auditorium

Co-sponsored by Friends of the University Libraries

ALL LECTURES ARE FREE FOR U of M STUDENTS
TICKETS & MORE: Z.UMN.EDU/6TICKETS

