

Cato Institute Summer Internship

POSITION INFORMATION

Employer	Cato Insitute
Division	N/A
Title	Cato Institute Summer Internship
Description	Apply at www.cato.org/intern by February 21st The Cato Institute is seeking interns to assist our scholars in all areas of policy research covered by the institute-- healthcare, education, taxation, economics, foreign policy, defense, law, criminal justice, and more. Communications-oriented internships are also available: We offer media relations, external affairs, and graphic design/video production positions. All interns, regardless of specific departmental placement, will take part in an intensive seminar program which will cover a broad range of history, philosophy, policy, and professional development topics. The internship is intended for students and recent graduates of all majors. Applicants should be knowledgeable about and interested in promoting free markets, limited government, individual rights, and peace (the core values of the Cato Institute). All domestic interns receive a $700 monthly stipend, international interns receive a $1,000 monthly stipend, and JD/legal interns receive a $1,400 monthly stipend. Apply online: www.cato.org/intern All applicants must apply at the URL above by February 21st.

Location

LOCATION

Nationwide

no

City

Washington

State/Province

District of Columbia

Country

United States

Position Type Full Time, Internship

Salary Level Stipend--see job description

HOW TO APPLY

Apply at www.cato.org/intern

Applications accepted via:
Other

IMPORTANT DATES

Posted On:

Jan 19, 2017

Applications Accepted Until:

Feb 25, 2017

Job Function IT, UX, Web Development, E-Commerce

Qualifications See here for expectations by department:
<https://www.cato.org/intern/placements>

Help Desk: 703-373-7040 (Hours: Mon-Fri, 9am-8pm EST)

Privacy Policy | Terms of Use | NACElink Privacy Policy | NACElink User Agreement