Macalester College Institute for Global Citizenship & Leiden University College

PERSPECTIVES ON GLOBALIZATION
SUMMER SEMINAR & FALL SEMESTER IN THE HAGUE

Using globalization as a master concept and The Hague in The Netherlands as its home, the Macalester Perspectives on Globalization Program engages students in an exploration of major issues and questions concerning human rights; migration; integration and diversity; inequality; politics and the arts; international justice.

The Hague is an international city with more than 150 international organizations and non-governmental organizations. It is a convenient location for travel within The Netherlands (Amsterdam is a 30 minute train ride away) and within Europe.
