

MA/MSc in International and World History

Columbia University and the London School of Economics

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

An innovative curriculum includes a two-year sequence of reading and research seminars, interdisciplinary electives, and intensive foreign language training. Esteemed faculty provide our students with new frameworks and the tools to understand the transnational forces that have shaped our world. At the heart of the program is the two-year dissertation, an original scholarly work based on empirical research and analysis.

Students spend the first year in New York and the second year in London, receiving degrees from both institutions. Immersed in the vibrant intellectual communities of these global cities, graduates are prepared for careers in government, journalism, think tanks, NGOs, and academia.

The world is more interconnected than ever. Apply now to join leading historians and study how we arrived here.
