Honors advisors are asked to write a letter of endorsement for the student whose project they have agreed to supervise.

In your letter, please address the following concerns, using illustrations from your past work with the student whenever possible:

1. The student's ability to work independently,
2. The student's previous experience in the discipline, and
3. The student's knowledge of the topic area and the appropriateness of this topic for pursuit as an honors project.

Thank you for your support. Please return your endorsement letter to the chair of the History Department.
