VITA/TCE Free Tax Programs

The mission of these programs is to provide free basic tax return preparation for low-to-moderate income and elderly taxpayers. This also includes taxpayers with disabilities, limited English proficiency and the Military.

Volunteers participating in these programs must sign a Form 13615, Volunteer Standards of Conduct Agreement - VITA/ TCE Programs. These agreements require them to provide high quality service and uphold the highest ethical standards.

While the IRS is responsible for providing oversight requirements to Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs, these sites are operated by IRS-sponsored partners who manage IRS-required site operations and volunteer ethical standards. In addition, the locations of these sites may not be in or on federal property.

To report unethical behavior to IRS, e-mail us at wI.voltax@irs.gov

Programas de Impuestos Gratuitos Ofrecidos por VITA/TCE

El Servicio de Impuestos Internos (IRS, por sus siglas en inglés), patrocina los programas de Asistencia Voluntaria al Contribuyente para la preparación de los Impuestos sobre el Ingreso (VITA, por sus siglas en inglés), y el de Asesoramiento Tributario para las Personas de Edad Avanzada (TCE, por sus siglas en inglés).

La misión de estos programas es proporcionar la preparación gratuita de las declaraciones de impuestos sencillas a los contribuyentes de ingresos bajos a moderados y contribuyentes de edad avanzada. Esto incluye también a los contribuyentes con discapacidades, aquéllos con dominio limitado del inglés y la milicia.

Aunque el IRS es responsable de proporcionar los requisitos de supervisión para los programas de Asistencia Voluntaria al Contribuyente (VITA) y de Asesoramiento Tributario para las Personas de Edad Avanzada (TCE), estos sitios son operados por socios patrocinados por el IRS que administran las operaciones requeridas por el sitio y los estándares de ética de los voluntarios. Además, es posible que las ubicaciones de estos sitios no estén en la propiedad federal.

Los voluntarios que participan en estos programas, tienen que firmar el Formulario 13615, Volunteer Standards of Conduct Agreement - VITA/ TCE Programs (Acuerdo de los estándares de conducta de los voluntarios de los programas de VITA/TCE), en inglés. Estos acuerdos exigen que ellos proporcionen un servicio de alta calidad y mantengan los más altos estándares éticos.

Para denunciar un comportamiento no ético al IRS, envíenos un correo electrónico a wI.voltax@irs.gov

WARNING!

- The TaxSlayer software is not “smart”!
 - Just because you can create a return that shows a particular amount of tax owed or a refund, or any number in any particular spot, does NOT mean that the return is correct.
- It is your responsibility to correctly prepare your tax return.
 - When you sign to send it in, you are signing under penalties of perjury that the return is true, correct, and complete.
 - We have provided aides to assist you in this process, and opportunities to talk to trained volunteers about how to prepare your return, but ultimately it is up to you to ensure that your return is correct.
 - As an IRS VITA clinic, the volunteers and organizations who assist you are not liable for any incorrect information in your return.
 - If the return you prepare is incorrect, YOU will be responsible for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that you may owe the IRS or any other tax authorities.

Macalester tax clients should use GLACIER Tax Summary Report and GTP to confirm that you are NRA for tax purposes. You can only use TaxSlayer software if your NRA for tax.

Am I a Nonresident?

If you want you can also access same information about tax residency after creating an account at this special NRA tax site, <https://www.nrvtap.com/>, by using their Am I Nonresident Alien tool, <https://tools.nrvtap.com/aminra>.

It is your individual responsibility to determine your federal tax residency. This tool can describe most common situations, but it does not cover every possible scenario. Please see IRS Publication 519 for definitive guidance regarding determining your federal tax residency.

Enter Your Visits

Please enter the entry and exit dates, along with the visa you held for that visit, for all of your visits to the United States. If you do not enter all of your lifetime visits and your correct visa information, then the results provided in this tool may not be accurate. You can view your travel history at (<https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/i94/#/home>).

Your most recent visit can have no exit date, if you are still present in the U.S. on that same visit. The calculation will use today's date as the exit date. To project your status in the future, you can enter the future date you expect to depart.

If your visa changed without you leaving the U.S. enter two visits: one with an exit date the same as the end date of the first visa, and the second with an entry date the same as the first date of the second visa.

Basic Scenario #3 Details

- This scenario is intended to assist in federal tax return preparation for nonresident aliens who do not have treaty benefits for wages or scholarships:
 - May have wage income
 - This would be reported on a W-2
 - May have scholarship or fellowship income
 - This would be reported on a form 1042-S form with income code 16
 - May have filed a federal and state income tax return last year
 - May have received a state income tax refund
 - May have paid additional state income tax
- If this scenario doesn't represent your basic situation, please go back to the main website and choose a different scenario, or use our personalized guide tool to create your customized guide.

Special Circumstances Scenarios

- We have broken out our state tax return preparation into separate guides. We have guides for the following states:
 - Minnesota, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, California, Maryland, Wisconsin, Ohio
- The following scenarios are intended to expand the federal and state tax return preparation process for nonresident aliens who have the following special circumstances:
 - Minnesota Property Tax Refund
 - Working in multiple states
 - Investment transactions – Interest, Dividends, Capital Gains
 - Wage Income with No 1042-S, or Your Treaty Benefits DO NOT MATCH
 - Scholarship or Fellowship Income Not Reported on a 1042-S
 - Charitable Contributions
 - Student Loan Interest
 - Dependents
 - IRA/401(k) Distributions
- If one or more of these special circumstances applies to you, FIRST complete this basic scenario, and THEN complete the guides for any special circumstances that apply.

Out of Scope Income & Situations

- Income over $89,000
 - Note: this is a software limit, and you won't be able to prepare a return if your income is over this amount.
- Some state income tax returns. We support MN, CA, PA, NC, MD, OH, and WI returns.
 - The software supports all of the other states, but we can't help you do them.
- Treaty benefits for income types other than wages, scholarships, dividends, and capital gains
- Self-employment Income (1099-NEC or 1099-MISC)
 - Per IRS rules, we can help with this for residents, but not for nonresident aliens. Here is a free resource that may help you no matter your federal tax residency status: Self Employment Tax Guide from My Free Taxes
- Income earned outside of the U.S.
- Amended Returns
- Prior Year (2022 or earlier) Returns
- Cryptocurrency or other digital assets

- If you have a type of income that is out of scope you can still use TaxSlayer to prepare your return, but we will not be able to provide guidance about the out of scope income.
- You can find reference materials for preparing your federal return / reporting out of scope income here:
 - <https://www.irs.gov/>

If you received gift card from Mac, reported on 1042-S Income Code 23, or award from other organization, i.e., Hack the Gap, this taxable income has to be reported. From TS menu>Federal>Income>Less Common Income>Other Income Not Reported Elsewhere

Remember – married is married – it doesn't matter who your spouse is or where they are living! If you are married to someone you must use the married status.

There is NO option to enter any Spouse Information

This is not a problem for your federal return!

Nonresident aliens cannot file joint returns to their spouse.

As long as you select Married Nonresident Alien at the beginning, that's all you need to do for your federal return.

This is bad news for some state returns.

For TY2022 returns, if your spouse had a SSN/ITIN then you could efile your state return for some states. For TY2023 year all married nonresident aliens cannot efile their state through TaxSlayer. You'll need to either to paper file your state return, or use a direct e-file system if your state has that. We'll cover your options in the filing guide.

Dependents or Qualifying Person(s)

Do you have children or relatives who rely on you for support and live in your home? If so, you might be able to receive potential tax credits and tax exemptions that could save you money on your tax bill. But before you get too excited, there are some situations when a child's exemption status is a little more complicated. The IRS does have special rules for those situations. ?

Do you have any dependents or qualifying person(s) to claim on your return?

Yes

No

Select No

CONTINUE

Notes:

A spouse is never a dependent. This is for tax dependents, not visa (-2) dependents

You must be from Canada, Mexico, India, or S. Korea to claim an exemption for your dependent. Your dependent must be a citizen or resident alien for 2023 and have a SSN or ITIN. This is quite unusual.

This scenario answer is NO

If you think your answer should be YES, go ahead and complete your return using this basic scenario, and then see special circumstances guide for dependents for further details and guidance.

Did you or anyone on your tax return receive a CP01A notice from the IRS containing a 6-digit Identity Protection PIN?

Country of Citizenship *

Country of Residence *

Your country of tax residency is the country you lived in prior to coming to the U.S. on your current visa. It is usually the country of your citizenship, but that is not a requirement. A temporary visit (such as for a vacation) to a country does not establish tax residency. It cannot be the U.S.

Enter Your Visits

Please enter the entry and exit dates, along with the visa you held for that visit, for all of your visits to the United States. If you do not enter all of your lifetime visits and your correct visa information, then the results provided in this tool may not be accurate. You can view your travel history at (<https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/i94/#/home>).

Entering your taxable scholarship income into your tax return

Yes, you have to do this step!

You enter the 1042-S document, and then enter the information again

A note about how scholarships are taxed

- Scholarships that are used for tuition or required books and fees are not taxable income for everyone (called qualified scholarships)
 - Usually schools will not provide a 1042-S for this type of scholarship
 - Shown in your student account statement
 - Sometimes called a tuition waiver or fee waiver.
- Scholarships that are used for all other things, such as room and board, or any other personal expenses
 - If you have a treaty benefit, the scholarship is not taxable
 - If you have no treaty benefit (like India), the scholarship IS taxable
- If you had a taxable scholarship, but spent some of the money on required tuition, books, or fees, you can not pay tax on that portion of the scholarship.
 - If this applies to you, go figure out that amount NOW.
 - You must be able to document this with receipts if the IRS asks.

Entering the part of your taxable scholarship that you spent on tuition, required books or fees

Doesn't apply to most Mac students since money goes directly to pay tuition, room and board, etc.

If this does not apply to you, skip to State Income Tax Refund or Payment section go to pg 99 - State Income Tax Refund or Payment section.

Note: You can only enter expenses up to the total amount of your taxable scholarship. Although the software won't stop you, claiming more expenses than your scholarship is not permitted under IRS regulations.
