

MACALESTER

Berg Postdoctoral Fellow Art History

The Macalester College Department of Art and Art History invites applications for a two-year, non-tenure-track visiting position in Art History, to begin Fall 2024. We seek a specialist in one of the following areas: African Art; Pre-Columbian Art (and/or Indigenous Arts of the Americas); or Art of Early Modern Europe (1500-1800). ABD candidates will be considered; however, they must have their degree in hand prior to August 2024. Visa sponsorship is not available for this position. Salary and benefits are competitive.

The Berg Postdoctoral Fellowship was established in 2015 with seed funding from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, and subsequent gifts from donors, with the intention of bringing to Macalester promising young scholars who augment the expertise of permanent faculty, enrich the intellectual community, and contribute to curricular innovation. In turn, the fellows benefit from immersion in the intellectual life of the college, a steady focus on a foundational scholarly project, and growth in their capacities as teachers, guided by Macalester faculty. Fellows serve two-year terms and teach three courses per academic year.

To apply, electronically submit a curriculum vitae, cover letter, contact information for three references, teaching philosophy statement, and a diversity statement (see below) to Academic Jobs Online. (<https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/26733>) Review of applications will begin January 25, 2024, and continue until the position is filled. Questions should be directed to the chair of the Art and Art History Department, Megan Vossler (mvossler@macalester.edu).

At Macalester College, diversity, equity, and inclusion are central to our educational mission and values. We are committed to the institutional change required for visioning and realizing a more equitable and socially just college and society. Strong candidates will have a record of experience or demonstrated commitment to teaching students of multiple and diverse backgrounds with attention to structural barriers that limit access to educational opportunities. In addition to the materials noted above, applicants should submit a diversity statement (no longer than 2 pages) that discusses past experiences and demonstrated activities contributing to diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives in their teaching, advising, and mentorship.

Macalester College is a highly selective, private liberal arts college in the vibrant Minneapolis-Saint Paul metropolitan area, with a population of approximately three million people and home to numerous colleges and universities, including the University of Minnesota. Macalester College is located in Saint Paul on the ancestral homeland of the Dakota people who were forcibly exiled because of aggressive and persistent settler colonialism. Macalester's diverse student body comprises over 2000 undergraduates from all 50 states and the District of Columbia and 95 nations. The College maintains a longstanding commitment to academic excellence with a special emphasis on internationalism, multiculturalism, and service to society.

As an Equal Opportunity employer supportive of affirmative efforts to achieve diversity among its faculty, Macalester College strongly encourages applications from women and members of underrepresented minority groups.
