

MACALESTER

Consortium for Faculty Diversity

Macalester is a member of the Consortium for Faculty Diversity, which was founded as an association of liberal arts colleges committed to strengthening the ethnic diversity of students and of faculty members at liberal arts colleges. The CFD program supports fellows who increase the ethnic and racial diversity of the faculty at participating institutions and maximize the educational benefits of diversity by enriching the students' experience.

For more information, please contact the Dean of the Faculty.

Macalester's CFD Postdoctoral Fellows:

2023-24

Yariana Diaz, Mathematics, Statistics and Computer Science

2022-23

Jake Nagasawa, American Studies

2021-22

Jake Nagasawa, American Studies

2020-21

Kirisitina Saliata, American Studies

2019-20

Kirisitina Saliata, American Studies
Sierra Lomuto, English

2018-19

Lizeth Gutierrez, American Studies
Sierra Lomuto, English

2017-18

Lizeth Gutierrez, American Studies
Althea Sircar Political Science

2016-17

Jennifer Peacock, American Studies
Althea Sircar, Political Science

2015-16

Jennifer Peacock, American Studies
Katrina Phillips, History

2014-15

Juliana Pegues, American Studies
Katrina Phillips, History

2013-14

Juliana Pegues, American Studies

2012-13

Genevieve Yue, Media & Cultural Studies
Juliana Pegues, American Studies

2011-12

Genevieve Yue, Media & Cultural Studies

2010-11

Erik Redix, American Studies

2009-10

Kristen Naca, English
Scott Shoemaker, American Studies

2008-09

Kristin Naca, English
Scott Shoemaker, American Studies

2007-08

Jason Ruiz American Studies

2006-07

Sarita Gregory, Political Science

Paul Albert Lacson, History

Jason Ruiz, American Studies

2005-06

Lei Bryant, Music

Sarita Gregory, Political Science

2004-05

Lei Bryant, Music

2003-04

San San Kwan, Theater

2002-03

Cynthia Wu, English