Visiting Assistant Professor
Linguistics

The Macalester College Department of Linguistics invites applications for a non-tenure-track position at the rank of Visiting Assistant Professor to begin fall semester of 2021. The appointment will be for one year. We welcome any specialization, but the candidate must be able to teach a course in syntax, Introduction to Linguistics, Field Methods, and two elective courses. We encourage candidates with expertise in non-Indo-European languages to apply. The teaching load is 5 courses/year. Salary and benefits are competitive.

Please submit electronically a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, names and email addresses for three references, and a statement of teaching interests and philosophy to https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/18013, and addressed to Christina Esposito, Chair, Department of Linguistics, Macalester College, 1600 Grand Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota 55105. The deadline for applications is March 1st, 2021. For questions about the position, please contact Professor Christina Esposito at esposito@macalester.edu. Candidates may be contacted at a later date and asked to provide additional application materials.

Macalester College is committed to student and faculty diversity, equity, and inclusion. Strong candidates will have a record of experience or demonstrated commitment to teaching diverse students. In addition to the materials noted above, applicants should also submit a diversity statement (no longer than 2 pages) that discusses past experiences and/or potential future contributions to inclusive excellence in the areas of research, teaching, service, and/or outreach. In the diversity statement, applicants should reflect upon their experience and vision regarding the teaching and mentorship of students from diverse backgrounds.

Macalester College is a highly selective, private liberal arts college in the vibrant Minneapolis-Saint Paul metropolitan area, with a population of approximately three million people and home to numerous colleges and universities, including the University of Minnesota.
