

91.7 FM

Program
guide
Spring '94

Monday:

8am-10am: Ben Dahl "Ben's Classical Mastery"

Classical Masters demonstrate why they are bigger than classic rock.

10am-Noon: Janah Boccio "Something for Everyone"

A mix of music of every style and age.

Noon-2pm: Colin Martin and Sara Brewer "The Funky Skank"

Funkish rock interspersed with significant forays into ska, reggae, indie-pop and the scintillating conversation of Colin and Sara.

2pm-4pm: Tom O'Connor "The Sarcastic Front"

A veritable smorgasbord of just about everything; folk, rap and painfully loud power trios plus some of the most random conversations ever heard on radio.

4pm-6pm: Salifou Fofana and Philippe Pierre-Louis "Rhythmes du Soleil"

A soulful journey into the jungles of the Caribbean, Africa and South America to bring you the rhythms of tropical climates. Move your hips, shake your bodies to the riddim.

6pm-8pm: Kyan Thornton "Dancehall Vibrations"

Massive jammin' in a dancehall stylee. Criss Caribbean dance grooves to make you wine ya body down.

8pm-10pm: Bill Childs "Soundtrack for a Hell of a Good Game of Twister"

Miscellany, mostly the allegedly "alternative" stuff-you know that nutty guitar rock stuff.

10pm-Midnight: Aaron Karlin "Non-stop Hip Hop-Prime Time Rhyme"

And enchanting evening of lyrical skills on wax spun by A to the K. Only the best production will be aired.

Midnight-2am: Tigger "What happens when you shave a Yak"

Loud, silly music plus requests. A new theme each week, which I will make up 5 minutes before each show.

2am-4am: Chris DeAngelis and Mark Bergen "News from Babel"

Progressive rock and acid jazz.

Tuesday:

8am-10am: Sara Bendure "Sex, Lies and Audiotape"

Every week she plays a different topic or genre of music. Every week you listen and love the show.

10am-Noon: Mara Ranville "The Pharmacy-Music and Tales for What Ails You"

Guest speakers, local bands and obscure punk 7 inches.

Noon-2pm: Kenny Gunderman "The Alphabet Show"

Songs all start with the same letter. New letter every week starting with the letter J.

2pm-4pm: Per Von Zelowitz and Brian Deiger "Urinal Cake"

Death metal bakery; we cater.

4pm-6pm: Dave Ashton and Nico Berry "The Beat Down Hour"

A weekly hip-hop pummeling doing the damage of a dynamite detonation to your dome.

6pm-8pm: Cecily Bosworth and Jill Bevington "More Bounce to the Ounce"

A funky of disco and soul/with a dash of reggae and rap/we'll bounce you up and out of your hole/with the Players, and Ayers and Zapp

8pm-10pm: Ander Murane "A Reasonable Guide to Horrible Noise"

Punks, skronk, Stax, spaghetti western soundtracks.

10pm-Midnight: Benjamin Ruhmkorff "Giving up the Nappy Bugout"

Rap and stuff.

Midnight-2am: Farley Chase "Not Necessarily the Blues"

Blues extravaganza mixed with whatever I can get my hands on.

2am-4am: Mandy Sindoris and Lisa Smieja "No My Name Ain't baby . . ."

Join us for two fun filled hours of a wide variety of music by women.

Wednesday:

8am-10am: Emily Bloch "Nice and Easy Wake Up"

A classical/jazz show rounded off by a little news and weather to start your day off right. Hosted by emily and varied cameos.

10am-Noon: Nate Sparks "The Beef Jerky Show"

A real friendly showcase of some talented country, bluegrass, folk and heavy metal artists.

Noon-2pm: Davin Lagerroos "Smiley's Circus Shideshow"

Mostly akindapunkhardcoreandpostpunkpost hardcore withsome metallesquefunskejazz andhiphopinfluences.

2pm-4pm: Geof Brown "Grandma Edna's easy Listening Hour"

Light groovy easy listening tunes to melt your brain with.=

4pm-6pm: Kate Milenski "Inga Nation's Personality Crisis"

The goddess spins you on a trashcan by the lips to the severed remnants of the slivering ancient punk-rock utopia she calls her mind. Listen, all the cool kids are doing it.

6pm-8pm: Alex Jeffries and Alex Danovitch "Alex 1 and Alex 2"

Punch holes in the vinyl with sheer cunning and mystique. Come join our sound fiesta and sooth the inner vibes

8pm-10pm: Eric Hausken "The Bob Spackleman Chokes on His Own Vomit Show"

I'm not making any promises.

10pm-Midnight: Will Silcott "The Nubian Hurrigan with DJ Ra"

From the Big Apple to the Minne-apple, Hip-Hop Reggae Flava.

Midnight-2am: Chris Herrington "Memphis, Macon and Muscle Shoals" rhythm and blues, rockabilly, doo wop etc. Like the man says "It's gotta be rock and roll music if you want to dance with me."

2am-4am: John Witthuhn "The Ask Dr. Science Show"

Guitar music from punk to thrash to industrial.

Thursday:

8am-10am: Sam West "Dylan"

A couple hours of the most palatable saucy Dylan. A feast for the long time discriminate fan.

10am-Noon: Jennifer brown and Diana Proper "Cape Fear"

Women DJ's who will stick to the bottom of your car.

Noon-2pm: Ivan Luong "No Future!: Focus on Punk"

This show will plays punk music, music influential to punk and post-punk rock. It will also focus on regional scene music from DC and Olympia.

2pm-4pm: Dan Sullivan "Music that Hurts to Hear"

Contemporary metal and avante garde classical that leaves its marks in your skin.

4pm-6pm: Skye Meriwether "Queen of Heaven II: The Divine Feminine"

Skye plays great female artists who could kick your ass all over the Twin Cities (but they'd probably just write a song about you and make you feel bad.) With Ian Whitney as "Car Talk."

6pm-8pm: Jesse Miner "Kickin' Skalistics"

Nows the time to cut the chatter, spin the platter and dig the ska.

8pm-10pm: Will Frailey and Berry Steiner "Bands that Won't Play Lollapalooza"

They'll play the shit that made them who they are. Punk, Jazz, Rap and Funk.

(Thursday continued)

10pm-Midnight: Sean McGuire "A Parcel of Rogues"

Folk music or music with a strong folk influence or music he can pretend to have a strong folk influence.

Midnight-2am: Pete Bayard "Diggin In the Grooveyard III"

Wow! What a Great Show! Be sure to tune in ontime for live "musical" introductions.

2am-4am: Bret Kramer "The Monks of Cool and Variety Acts"

Bret plays what he wants and all the requests you send him. Themes meet requests in Mortal Combat.

Friday:

8am-10am: Mary Rawson Foreman and Stephanie Grotta "Macalester's Morning Madness"

Spinning all the favorites from A to Z. Antenna, Fugazi, PJ Harvey, REM and Zu Zu's Petals.

10am-Noon: Jenni Undis "Alternahits-Volume 1"

Jenni Undis bring you two hours of your favorite "psotmodern" music from the 80's and 90's. It's not as pathetic as it sounds, honest.

Noon-2pm: Daniel Bain and Chris Croom "Norwegian Mafia"

Ja! We' be makin' ya eat lutefiske if'n ya don't listen to us.

2pm-4pm: Nikki Kinghorn "Girl Jam!"

Jinx and Nikki bring you a world of women's music. In everything from country to hip-hop, jazz to reggae, folk to rap sexy women are coming . . . to you.

4pm-6pm: Hayden Shumsky "Say, Say, Say . . ."

Hayden kicks knowledge and drops that fake metal accent.

6pm-8pm: Sebastian Castro and Brett Ellis "Champion Bubblers; Riddim Posse"

'Nuff dancehall, rockers style reggae representation and a few snippets of hip hop intertwined in a classic yard style.

8pm-10pm: Joanna Curtis "Winona hasn't lured them all away"

Features Minneapolis bands-some well known, some not well known but all worth hearing.

10pm-Midnight: Dameun Strange "The Return of Dr. D"

Dr. D retruns to spin out funky flips of mental medicine for your mind, soul and body. Ya gotta dance though.

Midnight-2am: Mikael Carlson and Nick Helfrich "From the Land of Skye Blue Waters"

Minnesota music, Minnesota trivia and delightful tidbits of northland knowledge.

2am-4am: Bradley Traynor "Airport Shmerport"

Each week, Ikisan brings you a different disco theme. Age of disco will increase exponentially, or else, kikimashyo.

Saturday:

9am-11am: Ethan Torrey "I'm Working"

Come watch our engineer fix the station.

11am-1pm: Pieter Martin and Andrew Bray "Honkey talk and Honky Tonk" Andrew and Pieter try to talk about the weather between mouthfuls of choice guitar driven, rockabilly derivative roast beef.

1pm-3pm: Stephanie Boehmer "Punker than you . . ."

What do late 70's English, Early 80's California and New Stuff You're never heard of have in common? All puck I'm gonna play on my show.

3pm-5pm: Jason Landry "The Mr. Mani Show"

A show which is ambitious with an astounding emotional depth and a sense of purpose that ostensibly redefines radio.

5pm-7pm: Kim Moyer and Jackie Hockett "Talkin' to Joe"

Hardcore, punk and some ska. Stuff that Joe likes.

7pm-8pm: Dave Gardner "Cap'n Dave's bait and Tackle Shop"

Live bands, tight slacks, minor league hockey.

8pm-10pm: Matt Hood w/ DJ Hidden Rhythm.

Quality hip hop joints from one of the best.

10pm-Midnight: Julie Wilson and Caroline Schnieders "Chaos"

Good music and readings connected chaotically. No hip-hop, no hardcore.

Midnight-2am: Thomas Kay "Gardening at Night"

High-speed nonstop-loud good sweet musak. He really likes radio.

2am-4am: Jodi Wilson and Alison Dozier "Raspberry and the Kiny Trinket"

Technoindustrial artfically generated electronic chainsaws. Yup.

Sunday:

9am-11am: Rebecca Moskow and Adrian Moran "Blessed by the Goddess Inga Nation"

Lots of dead white men and the music they wrote, and a few women and some live people too.

11am-1pm: Joh Chapman "Loud Shirts"

Calypso, surf and the tangy flavor of Long Island.

1pm-3pm: Kristina Aiello and Cynthia Ortiz "Top Ten R and B/Soul Countdown"

A mixture of sould R and B, hip hop and reggae, ranging from the late 60's to the present.

3pm-5pm: Nick Deming and Mike Canfield "Nick and Shaggy's Mystery Machine"

This is, like, a really funny show and we kinda joke around and stuff but we also play lots of totally hard music and it rocks hard.

5pm-7pm: Greg Prickman and Brooce Templeton "Radio Free Greg and Brooce"

The world's best indie-rock free for all keeps sticking it to man in a new, relaxation friendly Sunday evening slot.

7pm-8pm: Jordan Barnett "Columbo's House of Onion Rings"

Jordan runs music right through the day of our lord.

8pm-10pm: Amanda Huron "Splatterspleen"

Experimental driving tunes to study to.

10pm-Midnight: Abe Wheeler "Cadillac Abe's Jazz and Blues Hour"

Cadillac Abe plays jazz and blues for an hour. And then another hour.

Midnight-2am: Sonia Grover "Livin in the 30 Mac Basement"

No title, and feel free to make on up.

2am-4am: Jonathan Morris and Allen Manning "The Techno Show"

The show is meant to bring the listener to a new ethereal plane of consciousness. Shake a stick.

Profane Existence

Blacklist

STEP OFF SUCKER

Office Phone: 696-6082 Request Line: 696-6312