

SEAC Meeting Notes - February 3, 2022

- Student Employee of the Year
 - Accepting nominations, closes February 14
 - In years past, the committee has recognized 4 or 5 student employees. 1 SEOTY and the others as Outstanding Student Employees
 - Students are recognized at the Spring Recognition and Awards luncheon
 - NOTES:
 - so far two nominations
 - Sending more communications next week
 - Student Leadership subcommittee meeting end of Feb to pick the award recipient

- Talking about budgeting for department Student Employees
 - 2022 - 2023 Summer & Academic Year budget timeline
 - Supervisors will be sent communication next week about submitting budget requests
 - 2022 - 2023 hiring timelines
 - Summer/academic year hiring to go live mid March (3/14?)
 - First year receive credentials mid May
 - All students should be hired by second week in July
 - NOTES:
 - Departments will request what they think they will need
 - Putting together info for how supervisors should determine their budgets (how many students, how many hours per student a week, etc)
 - If needs have changed, it should be reflected in the budget/needs
 - Will have the updated wage information and award amounts (average)
 - Hoping to get the new budget proposals by end of Feb, confirm early March
 - People won't be able to post positions until March 14th
 - Some confusion about the summer position/May budgeting
 - Jaelynn working on a chart or wording to clarify the summer/academic year confusion
 - Can meet with Jaelynn if there are large restructuring of student employment

- Subcommittee Check-Ins:
 - President's Task Force:
 - Met in January, shared what has been done so far
 - Working to nail down what the recommendations are based on findings of both groups: peer-focused group and Mac-focused group
 - Finding balance between the needs of departments, the wellness of students, and financial aid/school budget
 - Sharing with Senior Leadership in April
