1. What do you think were the strengths of this course?

2. What do you think were the weaknesses of this course?

3. After taking this course, do you feel that you could have an informed discussion with a friend or family member about the relevant scientific basis for anthropogenic global warming? Why or why not?

4. a. What were your favorite topics/labs covered in class? Why?

   b. What were your least favorite topics/labs covered in class? Why?

5. How could this course be improved?