

NEW TENURE-TRACK FACULTY 2012–2013

Eric Carter

Geography

BA University of California, Berkeley MS & PhD University of Wisconsin– Madison

Medical geography, with connected interests in people-environment geography and historical geography, and a regional focus on Latin America.

Kari Shepherson-Scott

Art and Art History

BFA Boise State University
MA University of British Columbia
PhD Duke University

Japanese visual culture from the 19th and 20th centuries. Presentation of Manchuria in Japanese media and exhibitions during 1930s–1940s.

Mark Mandarano

Music

MM Peabody Conservatory
Previously at Lehman College (CUNY), California State University, Fullerton and Bard College.

Instrumental conducting.

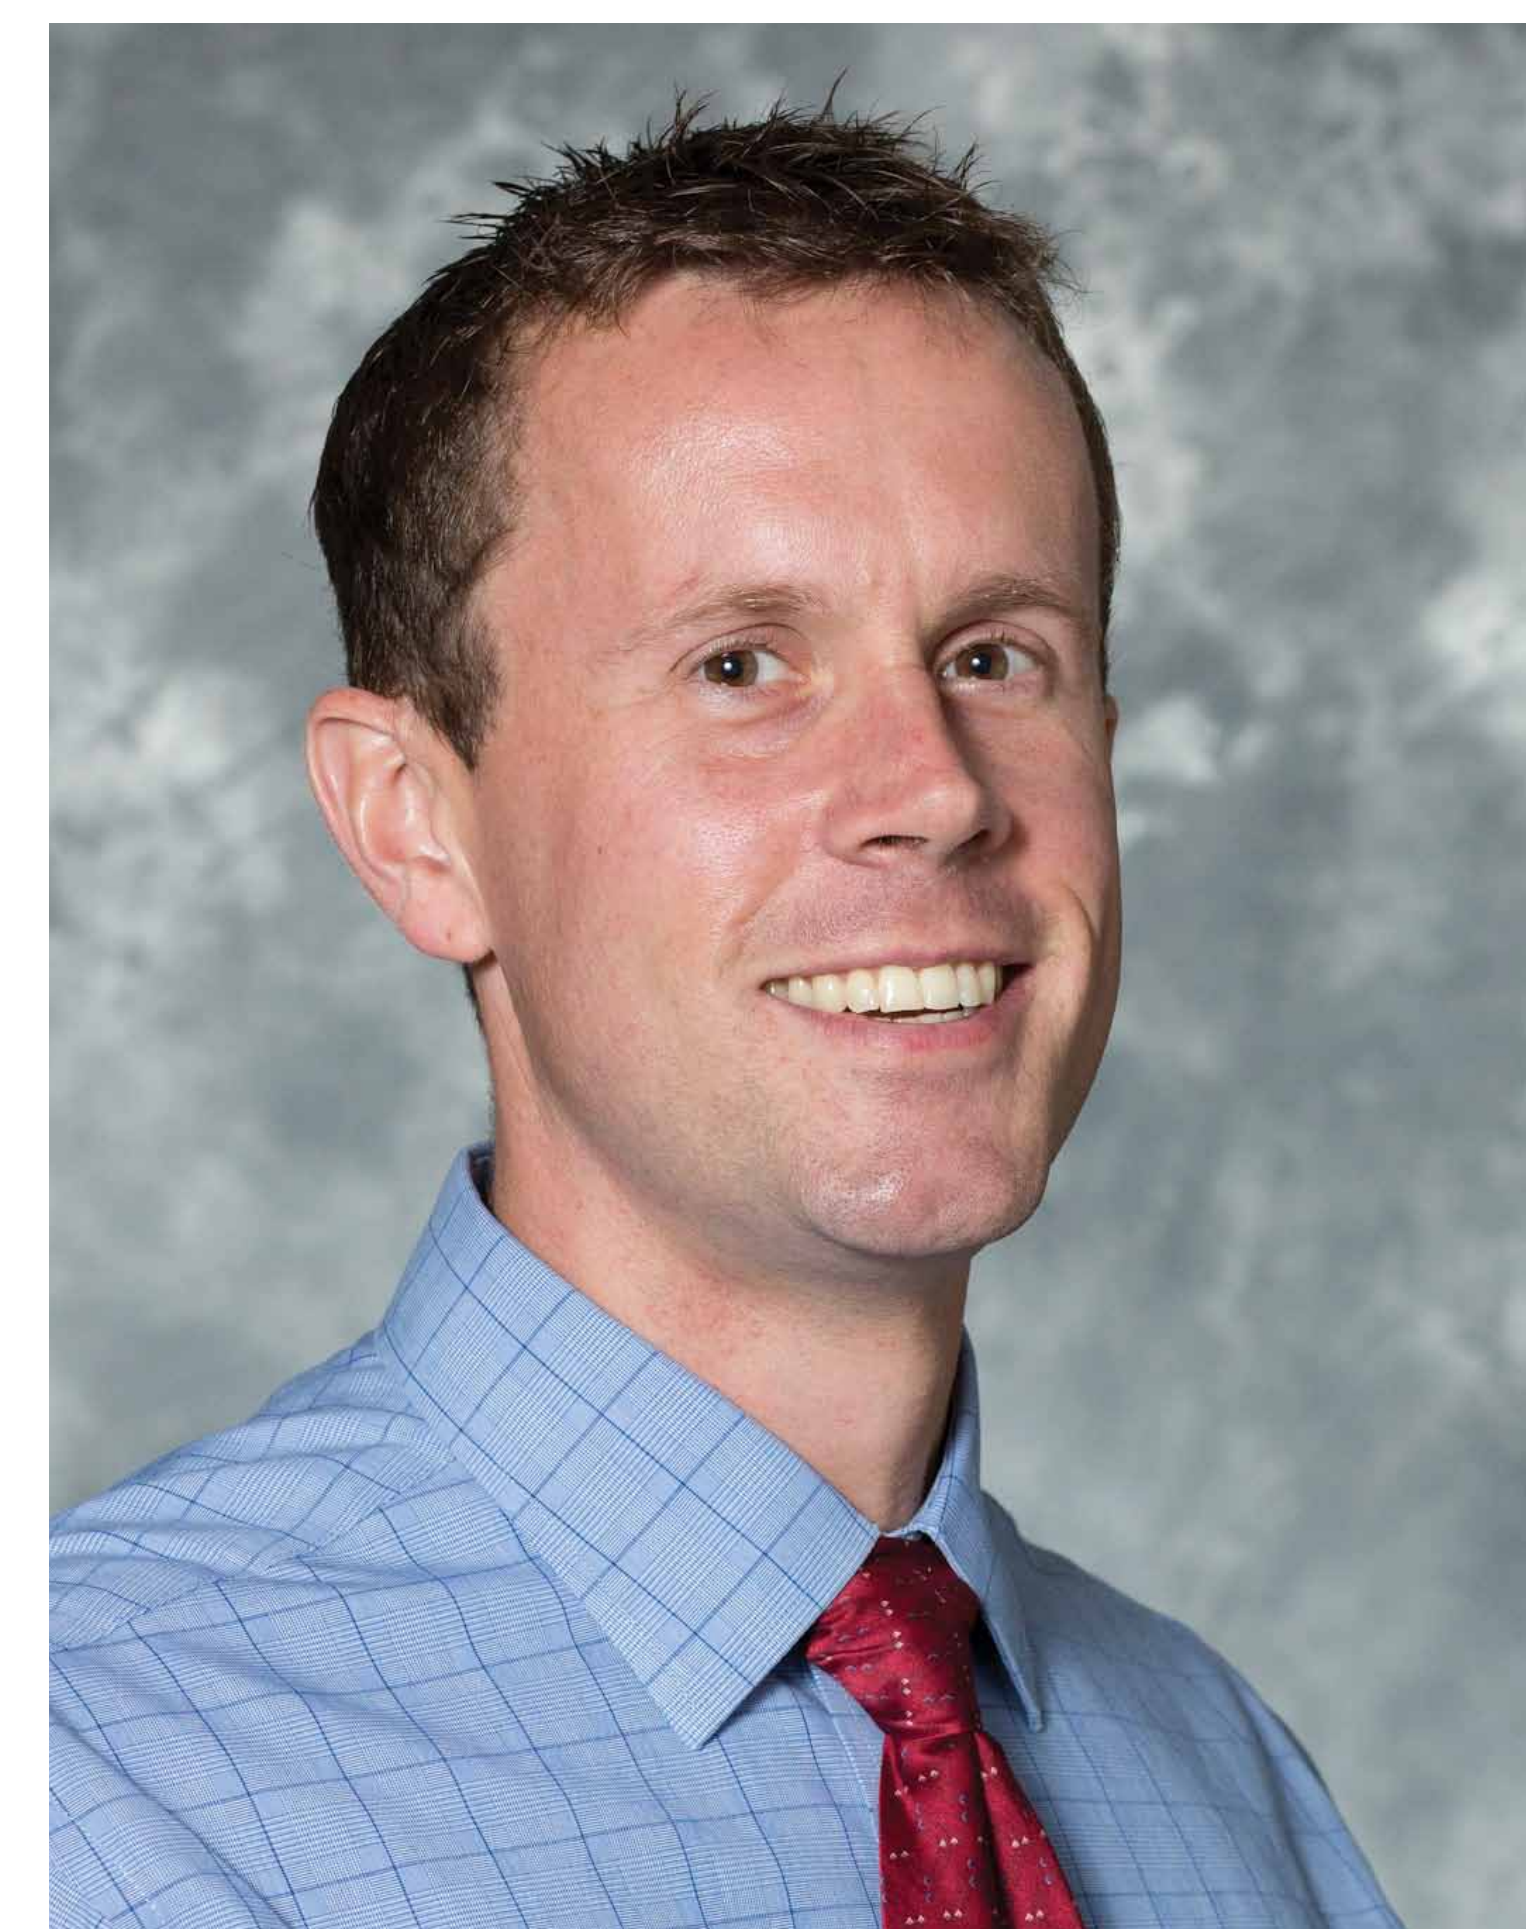

Lesley Lavery

Political Science

BA Willamette University MA & PhD University of Wisconsin–Madison

Relationship between policies and politics.
How policy shapes outcomes such as trust in school and government leaders and school and civic involvement and participation.

Michael McGaghie

Music

BA Harvard College
MM & DMA Boston University

Previously at The Boston Conservatory and Harvard University.
Recipient of the 2010 Julius Herford Prize Choral conducting. Choral literature and aural skills.