6. Which semester are you applying to study away? (*)

7. Semester Preference Reasons (*)

Macalester strives to keep a balance between students studying away in the fall and spring. In order to maintain this balance, you may be approved by the Study Away Review Committee (SARC) to study away in that academic year, but for a semester other than the one for which you have applied. More information about what to consider in your semester preference can be found on the CSA website about When and How Long (<https://www.macalester.edu/studyaway/beforeyouapply/whenandhowlong/>).

Please note that the Study Away Review Committee (SARC) prioritizes semester requests that are based on irresolvable conflicts such as varsity athletics, strict academic scheduling conflicts, the need to complete program prerequisites, or programs that are only offered in one semester. If your reason includes a scheduling conflict, please be sure to provide specific course information.

What are the specific reasons that you are applying for the semester that you selected above?
